

From Shakespeare to Goethe
But never forget
Cervantes is better.

This is a huge topic we don't know how to start Poetry can recover
your heart,
Poetry is such an art Poets while reciting are even allowed to fart.

For poets flirting is easy game
They can conquer you
with no pain
You want to keep listening to them even if you miss your train So mind the gap in case you faint.

From Shakespeare to Goethe
But never forget
Cervantes is better

However don't all poets
are clever,
Adam Mickiewicz is
the worst poet ever,
I noticed it just by reading the header
I was right it made me
have fever.

In contrast while reading Cervantes time
flies
El Quijote can melt
from your heart the ice Reading it will make you wise
But watch out, don't harm your eyes.
