

SPANISH POETS

CREATING YOUR OWN WORLD REQUIRES COURAGE

- GUSTAVO ADOLFO BÉQUER (19TH CENTURY)
- FEDERICO GARCÍA LORCA (20TH CENTURY)
- JUAN CARLOS ARAGÓN
- ELVIRA SASTRE

JUAN CARLOS ARAGÓN

GUATAVO ADOLFO BÉQUER

Bequer was in Sevilla, past away Madri.19 century. He was a spanisch poet and narrator , belonging to the romantic movement.The most repeated the is the love many timw including disappoinment and pain.The feeling are very present and there also reapetad allusions to death

FEDERICO GARCÍA LORCA

- He born in Granada (1898)
- He died shot at the Civil War (1936)

- He spend the half of his life in America to leran new cultures.

- He was in contact with all kind of artist and intelectual people (Salvador Dalí, Rafael Alberti)
- 27 Generation-> poets with commons ideas opposing to the Dictature of Franco.

- HE MIXED THE TRADITIONAL POETRY WITH VANGUARD:

- TRAGIC SENSE OF DEATH
- LOVE IS THE FORCE THAT GIVE SENSE TO THE LIVE
- SOCIAL CONCERNS LIKE JUSTICE, MISERY...

- FAMOUS SENTENCES:

- “I FEEL CATHOLIC, COMUNIST, ANARQUIST, TRADICIONALISTT AND MONARCHICAL AT THE SAME TIME”
- “I FEEL TOTALLY SPANISH, BUT FIRST OF ALL I AM A HUMAN OF THE WORLD AND BROTHER OF EVERYBODY”

ELVIRA SASTRE

- Segovia 1992
- English studies
- Spanish contemporary poetry

– LA POESÍA JAMÁS TE OLVIDARÁ –

Te he vuelto a ver desnuda

y se han corrido los ojos de pena

debía borrar aquellas fotos

el día que te olvidé,

¿pero quién sabe cómo deshacerse

del rastro de una estrella fugaz

cuando ya te he mirado a los ojos?

uno es preso de todo lo que ha amado

porque el amor es una condena de cadena perpetua

en una cárcel sin rejas...