Władysław Hasior

Was one of the leading Polish contemporary sculptors connected with the Podhale region. He was also a painter and theatre set designer.

The gallery devoted to Hasior's work has existed since 1984 and is situated in the interior of the 'deck-chair rental' by the 'Warszawianka' Hotel, a building that was built prior to World War II when Zakopane was an anti-tuberculosis resort and bed rest in the open air was a common form of treatment.
